

HCAM & MCAL Virtual Education:

SURVIVING AN ACTIVE SHOOTER EVENT

Understanding the dynamics of violence in healthcare, situational awareness, and the importance of training.

Tuesday, April 16, 2019: 11:00 am - 12:00 pm EST | Virtual Program

DESCRIPTION

This program is aimed at leaders and their responsibility to ensure that education and training is provided regularly to new and existing employees. Participants will learn how to evaluate the workplace violence plan and its effectiveness. The goal is to create a culture of safety in the healthcare environment. Security is everyone's responsibility and investing in employee and patient safety not only meets the requirements for OSHA, Joint Commission, CMS, and other accreditation organizations, it's simply the right thing to do.

CONTACT HOURS

This program will provide participants the opportunity to earn up to one contact hour for licensed nursing home administrators. This program is appropriate for adult foster care providers and certified assisted living directors for one contact hour of professional development.

LEARNER OBJECTIVES

- 1) Identify pre-incident behaviors where tactical de-escalation skills can reduce the potential for harm.
- 2) Define situational awareness and understand the importance of personal safety.
- 3) Identify the actions necessary to protect themselves and their patients during an active shooter event.

WEBINAR PARTICIPATION

Registration for this webinar includes the awarding of one (1) contact hour for the registered attendee only, however, all facility staff are welcome and encouraged to listen.

WEBINAR ARCHIVE

This webinar will be archived and available for purchase at a slightly increased rate within two weeks following the conclusion of the live webinar.
