

Health Care Association of Michigan proudly presents:

CMS FACILITY INITIATED TRANSFER VS. STATE – INVOLUNTARY TRANSFER RULES: REQUIRED NOTICES

On-Demand Archived Virtual Education

Target Audience

The program is recommended for skilled nursing/post-acute care executive-level leadership including facility/center owners, corporate-level consultants, regional directors, administrators, directors of nursing and admissions personnel.

Learning Outcome

Participants will be provided with an overview of the requirements contained in the new Facility Initiated Transfer regulations (F623) governing notice requirements for transfers to the hospital when return to the facility is anticipated. They will learn how to distinguish between the federal and state definitions, as they conflict, and learn which forms to use for notices and under which circumstances. Additionally, the new resident notice requirements will be discussed. Lastly, participants will have the opportunity for Q&A.

Faculty

Vickie Burlew, Lebenbom & Rothman, P.C.
Margaret Chamberlain, Rolf Goffman Martin Lang LLP

Contact Hours

This webinar will provide registered participants the opportunity to earn up to (1) one contact hour for licensed nursing home administrators.

Archived Webinar Completion Requirements

In order to obtain your contact hour, you must participate in the entire 60 minute webinar and complete & submit an evaluation form and certificate of completion via fax to 517-627-3016 within 7 business days from completion.
