

HEALTH INDUSTRY DISTRIBUTORS ASSOCIATION

For Immediate Release
January 20, 2012

ANDREA LOGAN TO LEAD NATIONAL HEALTH DISTRIBUTOR ASSOCIATION IN 2012

Alexandria, Va. – Andrea Logan, founder and president of All Med Medical Supply LLC in Westland, Mich., will lead the Health Industry Distributors Association (HIDA) serving as its board chair for 2012.

Logan began her career working as an activity director at a long-term care (LTC) facility and her commitment to the senior population was a driver in founding All Med. In the 17 years since its creation, the company has grown steadily and is recognized as a premier medical distribution company serving the post acute market in the Midwest.

As chair, Logan will guide the board as it sets the association's priorities for the year. In addition to her service on the HIDA board, she was previously chair of the HIDA Long Term Care Advisory Council and a member of the HIDA Education Foundation Board of Directors.

MEDIA CONTACT: Amy Lee, 202-280-8816
lee@hida.org

About HIDA

The Health Industry Distributors Association (HIDA) is the premier trade association representing medical products distribution. HIDA members primarily serve the nation's hospital, long term care, and physician/alternate care markets. For more information, visit www.streamlininghealthcare.org or www.HIDA.org.